

Type of Event: News Article Presentation

Date: 6th March, 2024

Timing: 10:30 AM to 12:00 PM

Venue: SL-III LAB (CSE Department)

BRIEF DETAILS OF EVENT:

Event Overview: The Data Science Club organized the 'Tech News Presentation' event in the college on the occasion of Anand Utsav 2024, offering participants an opportunity to delve into technical articles published in 2024. The essence of the event was to analyze and present these articles in a manner akin to a news report, fostering a blend of technical expertise and presentation skills.

Event Format: As an individual, participants were tasked with selecting a technical news article and presenting it using a PowerPoint presentation. The presentations were required to cover key aspects of the assigned article with technical depth, clarity, and original analysis within a time limit of 10-15 minutes per presentation.

Judging Criteria: The judging criteria encompassed various aspects, including the depth of content, clarity of presentation, coverage of key points, and the speaker's technical knowledge. Original analysis and the ability to present the information in the format of a news report were emphasized.
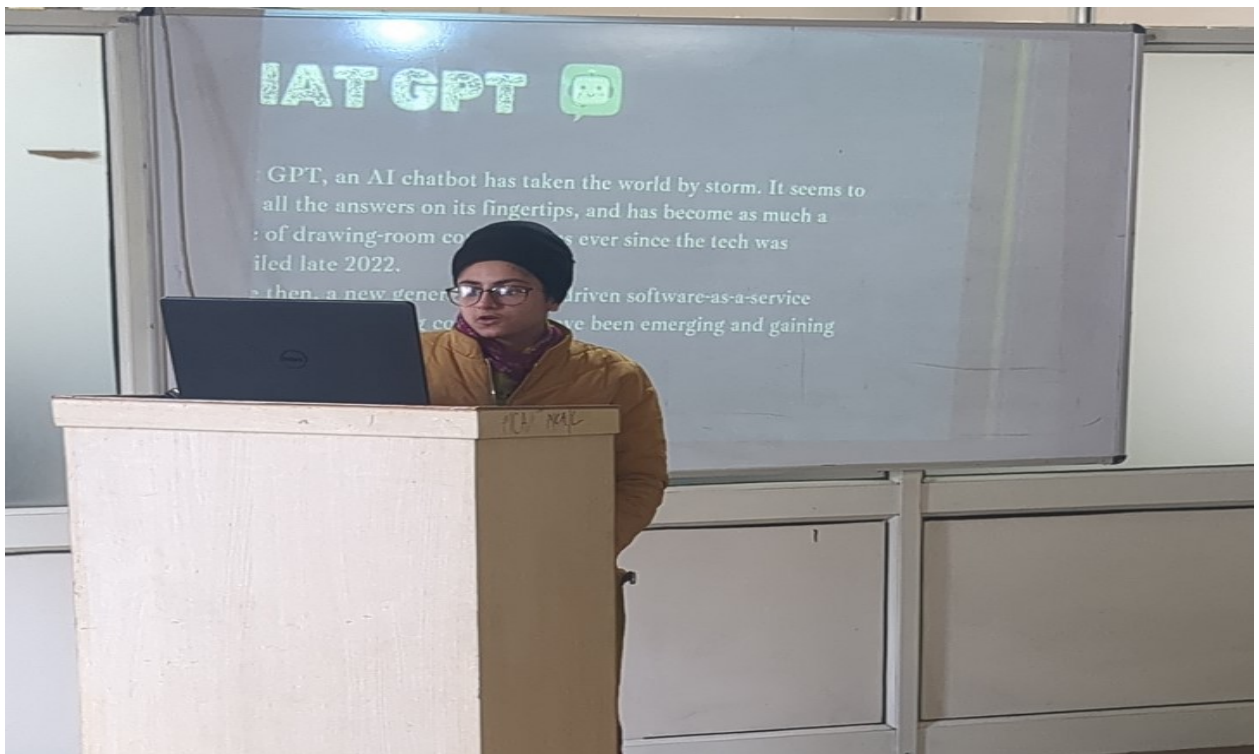

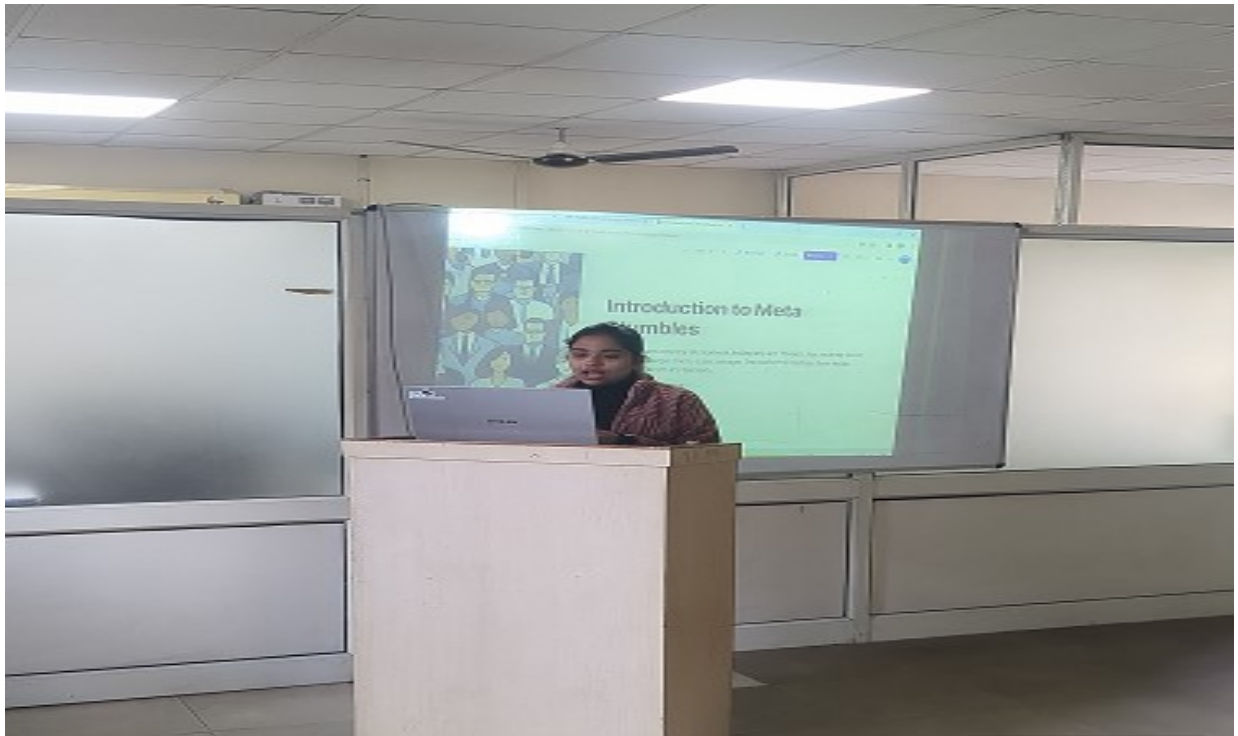

Key Components: Each presentation was expected to include the following elements:

1. Name of the article
2. Actual article content
3. Date of publication
4. Introduction to the relevant technology
5. Proper conclusion summarizing key findings and insights

Outcome: Participants showcased their proficiency in both technical understanding and presentation skills as they delivered engaging news-style reports on their chosen articles. The event provided a platform for individuals to demonstrate their ability to dissect and present complex technical topics in a concise and accessible manner.

Conclusion: With a focus on original analysis and effective communication, the 'Tech News Presentation' event served as a valuable opportunity for participants to refine their technical presentation skills while staying abreast of the latest developments in the field. The decision of the judges was deemed final and binding, ensuring fairness and impartiality throughout the competition.
